The Gothic Quarter

Discover the Roman & Medieval town

Our district was the original core of the Roman and Medieval Barcelona and it's still nowadays the heart of the city. Be ready to enjoy history and legends, combined with modern museums, local fashion designer's shops, restaurants and more. Our suggestion is to take a gastronomic or cultural walking tour around the area with one of our local guides.

Catalan Modernism

Gaudí's Houses & Sagrada Família

Take the chance to visit the main works of Antoni Gaudí around the Eixample district, learn about his life and work and, of course, admire the world famous Sagrada Família. Take a tour with a local guide, explore the roots of the modernist movement and understand the social upheavals and political problems of this era. Enjoy one of the world's most spectacular architectures and most talented designers.

Montserrat & Penedès

Montserrat Monastery & Penedès wine tasting

Combine the grandeur of Montserrat Monastery hidden in the Montserrat mountain (1 hour from Barcelona by car), with a traditional farmhouse-style three course lunch, followed by a visit to a small family owned organic winery with tasting in the wine region Penedès.

Figueres & Begur

Mediterranean charm

Enjoy the Costa Brava, the Catalan picturesque coast that inspired the genius painter Salvador Dalí and visit his great museum in his hometown Figueres. Complete your trip by visiting the town of Begur and have lunch by the sea. Experience it by renting a car or taking a tour around the Northern area of Catalonia.

A spectacle for the senses

Traditional Flamenco

Although flamenco comes from Andalusia, Catalonia has a long-standing flamenco tradition with important dancers (bailaoras) such as Carmen Amaya and Joan Magriñá. Every evening you will be able to enjoy a traditional Flamenco show.

Travel with all your senses

BCN Tapas tour

Gastronomy is one of the best ways to get to know a country's culture and history. Enjoy a cultural walk through Gothic and Born historic neighborhoods, visit its gastronomic ateliers and taste the Spanish and Mediterranean food.

Are you ready?

Luxury driving experience

Choose your car, choose your route and get ready for an exciting driving experience. Drive a Ferrari, a Porsche or a Lamborghini among many luxury cars. Explore the city or spend the day by the coast or wine region.
